

OUTLINE FOR LEADING OR USING 'BEING WITH GOD IN SCRIPTURE' AS TWO UNITS

These notes are designed to be used alongside the Facilitator's notes. They will give you the content focus in a full or simplified form and an outline for running 'Being with God in scripture' in two parts.

The facilitator notes and worship powerpoints give you instructions on anything you will need beforehand, preparation checklist and prayers for leaders, the outcomes of the two units, possible opening and reflection discussion questions, signposting suggestions to extra materials, closing prayer suggestions, and review questions for leaders.

One way of dividing the session this may be to use the content of the first unit in a Sunday service, and the second in a group.

However you do it, making sure you include feedback to one another, modelling and the opportunity to respond remains central to the approach of the course.

UNIT ELEVEN: BEING WITH GOD IN SCRIPTURE

Begin with worship (you can use the suggested activity and powerpoint).

FEEDBACK AND OPENING QUESTION

In their pairs from the end of the last session, ask people to feedback to each other how their experience of their response action(s) from last week has been - the emphasis is on mutual encouragement in accountability, not guilt!

Then in pairs ask people to discuss an opening question for 3 minutes. You can use the suggestion in the facilitator's notes or devise your own.

CORE TEACHING CONTENT

Use the powerpoint to present, or read/discuss these questions in the booklet:

How do we hear from God and understand what He wants?

How is the Bible different from other books?

How does God shape me through the Bible?

What is at the heart of the Bible?

What is in the Bible and how was it written?

How am I meant to read it?

MODELLING/REFLECTION

You can show part of the video, covering the final question: What helps you to read the Bible?

Discuss this question together, offering your own experience as much as possible.

PERSONAL RESPONSE AND ACTION FOR COMING WEEK.

Give each person time to reflect privately on the questions: "What is God saying to me and what is my response?" Any actions they take will be self-generated. But the following week they will be encouraged at the beginning to report back to one other person.

Explain that there is no requirement for a response, it is not a test, but an opportunity. We have set aside this time in the expectation that God will draw close to us. Ask people to share their responses in pairs. If they wish to help one another by writing down any actions and praying for each other then encourage them to do so. There is no group feedback, but as facilitator you can share what you feel able in order to model gentle accountability and trust.

SIGNPOSTING, CLOSING PRAYER AND REVIEW.

UNIT TWELVE: READING WITH THE MIND AND HEART

Begin with worship (you can use the suggested activity and powerpoint).

FEEDBACK AND OPENING QUESTION

In their pairs from the end of the last session, ask people to feedback to each other how their experience of their response action(s) from last week has been - the emphasis is on mutual encouragement in accountability, not guilt!

Then in pairs ask people to discuss an opening question for 3 minutes. You can use the suggestion in the facilitator's notes or devise your own.

CORE TEACHING CONTENT

Use the powerpoint to present, or read/discuss these questions in the booklet:

- How do I read with my mind?
- How do I know I am reading it right?
- How do I read with the heart?
- How do I read the Bible with others?
- Where do I start?

MODELLING/REFLECTION

You can show part of the video, covering the first two questions: How do you study the Bible? How do you hear God through the Bible?

Discuss these questions together, offering your own experience as much as possible.

LECTIO DIVINA

You can do the Lectio Divina exercise on John 21: 1-14. (Available on separate Worship Aims Bible passage powerpoint) See the facilitator's notes.
