

OUTLINE FOR LEADING OR USING 'KNOWING THE BIBLE: COVENANT AND WORSHIP' AS TWO UNITS

These notes are designed to be used alongside the Facilitator's notes. They will give you the content focus in a full or simplified form and an outline for running 'Knowing the Bible: Covenant and Worship' in two parts.

The facilitator notes and worship powerpoints give you instructions on anything you will need beforehand, preparation checklist and prayers for leaders, the outcomes of the two units, possible opening and reflection discussion questions, signposting suggestions to extra materials, closing prayer suggestions, and review questions for leaders.

One way of dividing the session this may be to use the content of the first unit in a Sunday service, and the second in a group.

However you do it, making sure you include feedback to one another, modelling and the opportunity to respond remains central to the approach of the course.

UNIT FIVE: KNOWING THE BIBLE: COVENANT AND WORSHIP

Begin with worship (you can use the suggested activity and powerpoint).

FEEDBACK AND OPENING QUESTION

In their pairs from the end of the last session, ask people to feedback to each other how their experience of their response action(s) from last week has been - the emphasis is on mutual encouragement in accountability, not guilt!

Then in pairs ask people to discuss an opening question for 3 minutes. You can use the suggestion in the facilitator's notes or devise your own.

CORE TEACHING CONTENT

Use the powerpoint to present, or read/discuss these questions in the booklet:

How is the relationship God wants with the world described in the Bible?

What does this relationship mean for our calling as human beings?

How does the Bible describe the kind of relationship God wants with us?

How does this relationship shape our lives?

What does the whole Bible reveal about God's character?

OR

You can cover this material in a simplified way using the bookmark "What does the Bible say about what kind of relationship God wants with us?"

MODELLING/REFLECTION

You can show all of the video, covering the question: What do the words covenant and kingdom mean to you?

Discuss this question together, offering your own experience as much as possible.

PERSONAL RESPONSE AND ACTION FOR COMING WEEK.

Give each person time to reflect privately on the questions: "What is God saying to me and what is my response?" Any actions they take will be self-generated. But the following week they will be encouraged at the beginning to report back to one other person.

Explain that there is no requirement for a response, it is not a test, but an opportunity. We have set aside this time in the expectation that God will draw close to us. Ask people to share their responses in pairs. If they wish to help one another by writing down any actions and praying for each other then encourage them to do so. There is no group feedback, but as facilitator you can share what you feel able in order to model gentle accountability and trust.

SIGNPOSTING, CLOSING PRAYER AND REVIEW.

UNIT SIX: THE UNIQUENESS OF THE BIBLE AS GOD'S WORD

Begin with worship (you can use the suggested activity and powerpoint).

FEEDBACK AND OPENING QUESTION

In their pairs from the end of the last session, ask people to feedback to each other how their experience of their response action(s) from last week has been - the emphasis is on mutual encouragement in accountability, not guilt!

Then in pairs ask people to discuss an opening question for 3 minutes. You can use the suggestion in the facilitator's notes or devise your own.

CORE TEACHING CONTENT

Use the powerpoint to present, or read/discuss these questions in the booklet:

How is worship at the centre of the Bible's story, what does it show about how to worship?

What does the Temple show about God's presence and His continuing plan for a recreated world?

What does it mean to believe that the Bible is human and divine?

OR

You can cover this material in a simplified way using the "How can the Bible be human and divine?" bookmark.
